Hangover Hair is the perfect remedy for your hung-over locks that have been through a hard day's work and a long night partying and after over exposure to the sun and sea throughout the Summer.

Everyone knows what a hangover feels like and your hair is no exception! The organic Hangover hair care range has been designed by Daniel Galvin Junior to give your hair that moisture and nourishment it so desperately craves after a night on the tiles. Ingredients of organic Essential Oils and Vitamins ensure that your hair gets the best care possible.

Top Tip: get a good hair cut to take you from Summer to Winter and get rid of all those split ends and to revive your hair follow just three quick and easy steps:

Step 1: Hangover Hair Luxury Shampoo

Massage this shampoo with Lavender essential oil into your scalp and let the impurities wash away, ensuring your hair is detoxified and refreshed.

Step 2: Hangover Hair Luxury Conditioner

Coat mid lengths and ends in this rich and luxurious conditioner and allow the minerals and essential oils to re-hydrate and revitalise your tired tresses.

Step 3: Hangover hair Intensive 2in1 Conditioning and Gloss Treatment

For hair that looks really hung-over use this 2in1 intensive treatment to provide that extra moisture shot it so desperately needs. Leave the treatment in for 20 minutes and then rinse or towel dry. To maximise effect wrap your hair in a hot towel and leave in whilst you curl up on the sofa, and let your hair and body recover as one.

So for shiny, smooth and luscious locks use Daniel Galvin Junior organic Hangover Hair, the perfect remedy for curing your hair hangover!
